Student Activities

Outside the classroom, there is a lot to see and do at USC. Students told us SCampus needed a list of clubs – you will find hundreds listed in this section. Information about sports, arts and volunteer opportunities is also included.
Activities, Campus

The Office of Campus Activities believes the unique Trojan experience is enhanced by activities and programs outside of the classroom. Our role is to provide a link between students’ classroom experiences to activities beyond the classroom. The Office of Campus Activities sponsors services, programs and events to educate, advocate, entertain and challenge students. Campus Activities provides students the necessary tools and resources for their individual and student organization success as well as supports student advocacy efforts. This office exists to create a student life experience exclusive to USC.

The Office of Campus Activities comprises several offices/departments including:

- Campus Traditions
  - CONQUEST
  - Homecoming
  - Spirit Bags
- Student organization awards
- Center for Student Involvement
  - USCLEAD
  - Peer Leadership Consultants
- Student Organizations
- Graduate and Professional Student Senate
- Program Board
- Undergraduate Student Government

HOW TO GET INVOLVED

Student organizations are a great way to get involved on campus. Belonging to a group that shares your interests can enrich your college experience. Academic interest groups, honor societies, sports clubs, religious organizations, groups with a focus on political or social issues, service organizations and clubs with primarily social purposes are among the official student organizations at USC. For an up-to-date list of organizations and contact information, visit the student organization Website at www.usc.edu/stuorgs or refer to “Student Organizations” on page 78.

Once you decide to join a particular student organization, you can call or email the president, go to their meetings or put a note in one of the organization mailboxes. Involvement fairs are held twice a year to give you the opportunity to meet student organization representatives and learn how to join a group.

In addition to student organizations, USC has a variety of other ways for you to be active. Students can get involved in student governance through the Undergraduate Student Government, Graduate and Professional Student Senate, University Residential Student Community and building governments. Program Board is a good opportunity for students who like to program events or are interested in bringing educational, social and cultural events to campus. (For more information on student governance opportunities, see Student Governance on page 76.) USC also has an active greek community as well as cultural centers that both welcome and educate students about different cultures and ethnicities.

If you need help finding your niche, visit the Peer Leadership Consultants in TCC 330.

SCHEDULING OFFICE

Email: bovprod@usc.edu
www.usc.edu/bovard

Bovard Auditorium is the largest lecture and performing space on the USC campus. It is one of the oldest and busiest performance venues in Southern California. Staffed with an all-student technical and house team, it serves as home for the President’s Distinguished Lecture and Performance Series, the Thornton Symphony, USC Spectrum Performing Arts Series, Visions and Voices events and large-scale student-sponsored events.

For reservations, contact the Bovard production managers at bovprod@usc.edu.

Arts at USC

Los Angeles is a dynamic center for the creative arts. This excitement is reflected at USC through diverse opportunities for involvement in the arts as a participant or observer.

USC FISHER MUSEUM OF ART

(213) 740-4561
Harris Hall
fisher.usc.edu

In 1937, USC accepted a gift from Elizabeth Holmes Fisher, the first woman to serve on the USC Board of Trustees, to construct the Elizabeth Holmes Fisher Gallery. Dedicated on November 14, 1939, it was renamed the USC Fisher Museum of Art in 2008. In addition, Mrs. Fisher, between 1939 and 1951, donated a total of 74 paintings, drawings, and sculptures by European and American artists.

The Fisher Museum also maintains a collection of some 1,800 individual works of art in a wide range of media, mostly painting, from old master works by Dutch, Flemish, British, French and Italian painters to contemporary Latin American and Mexican art. Fisher Museum is thrilled to collaborate with the Ronald Tutor Campus Center through the long-term loan of works of art from the permanent collection so that they may be viewed and enjoyed by thousands of our students and visitors to campus throughout the year.

The Fisher Museum of Art is also home to the USC International Museum Institute, or IMI. Created in 2006, IMI is a think tank for museum professionals, offering a wide variety of workshops and lectures broadening the discussion of museums, their impact on society and their future.
Accredited by the American Association of Museums (AAM), the USC Fisher Museum of Art is an institution of intellectual inquiry and aesthetic enjoyment not only for USC, but also for the local community and the greater Los Angeles area. During each exhibition, the museum offers a number of cultural activities to enhance the experience of the current show. Some program series include:

- Yoga with Fisher@USC: yoga instructors use the paintings on display for inspiration and meditation.
- Concerts with Fisher@USC: musical events utilizing the museum’s ideal acoustic space.
- Films with Fisher@USC: regular film screenings in the galleries.
- Families with Fisher@USC: community events held for families.

Admission to the museum and related events and programs is free. Group tours are also available by appointment. Please visit Fisher’s Website and the USC Arts and Events Calendar for information on current exhibitions and events. The Fisher Museum is open Tuesdays through Fridays, 12 p.m. - 5 p.m., and Saturdays 12 p.m. - 4 p.m. It is closed on university holidays and during the summer.

The university’s online Arts and Events Calendar is the central source for listing cultural programming at USC. The calendar is searchable by keyword, by date or by type of event, and it can be accessed using RSS or Google Calendar. Anyone in the USC community may submit listings.

Sports

INTERCOLLEGIATE SPORTS

Heritage Hall
(213) 740-3843
www.usctrojans.com

Intercollegiate athletics have a long, successful tradition at USC. Trojan athletics have won 114 team national championships in a dozen men’s and women’s sports – from baseball to water polo. USC has won more national championships than all but two NCAA member institutions and is one of only three universities in intercollegiate athletics history to win five national championships in one year (1962-63 and 1976-77).

In 2010, USC added to its title count by capturing NCAA team crowns in men’s tennis in the spring and in men’s water polo in the fall.

USC has 21 Division I sports, including nine men’s teams and 12 women’s teams. The men’s teams include football, baseball, basketball, golf, swimming and diving, tennis, track and field, volleyball and water polo. Women compete in basketball, cross country, golf, lacrosse, rowing, soccer, swimming and diving, tennis, track and field, volleyball, sand volleyball and water polo. Students interested in participating should visit the Athletic Department in Heritage Hall or call (213) 740-3843.

Traditionally, about 4,000 students make the trek to the San Francisco Bay Area the weekend of the away game with either Stanford or Cal. See the Daily Trojan for specific dates and times, for ticket distribution and other information, such as group charter flights and bus schedules, pertaining to the Bay Area weekender. Most students stay in San Francisco and attend a rally sponsored by Alumni Relations and Trojan Pride.

Men’s and women’s home basketball games and volleyball matches are played in the Galen Center, located across the street from campus, at the corner of Figueroa Street and Jefferson Boulevard. Seating for these games is generally assigned on a first-come, first-served basis.

Schedules for all men’s and women’s sports are available in Heritage Hall or online at www.usctrojans.com. Football season tickets for students can be purchased online at www.usctrojans.com. See page 51 for more information. Quantities may be limited. Entrance to all other men’s and women’s sporting events are free with a USC student identification card.

Trojan Spirit Code
The university has established a new policy to honor its championship football team by upholding the Trojan tradition of good sportsmanship. Alcohol is no longer permitted in sports stadiums. For more information, see the Trojan Spirit Code Policy on page 170.

RECREATIONAL SPORTS
Senior Director: Justine Gilman Director: Gabe Valenzuela Lyon University Center (213) 740-5127 Email: recsports@usc.edu www.usc.edu/recsports

To meet the diverse interests of the university community, Recreational Sports has developed a comprehensive sports package, including intramural sports, club sports, fitness, wellness and leisure classes and recreational facilities.

The mission of Recreational Sports is to provide quality recreational programs and services that enhance student, faculty and staff knowledge and opportunities for participation in activities that promote healthy lifestyles, positive human relations and leadership skills.

Recreational Sports is located in the Lyon University Center on the University Park campus. For access to the Lyon Center or the HSC Fitness Center located on the Health Sciences campus, all students must register for classes for the current semester and complete the online waiver at least 24 hours before using either facility. Membership is available to faculty, staff and alumni for a fee. All patrons must show a valid USC ID and guests must show a picture ID along with their membership card.

Intramural Sports
The Intramural Program is one of the most popular undergraduate and graduate student activities at USC with more than 9,900 participants.

Intramural leagues and tournaments include: All-University Sports Program (All-U); Women’s Intramural Sports Program (WISP); Coed Sports Program (COED); Inter-Fraternity Sports Program (IFSP); Inter-Sorority Sports Program (ISSP); and Housing and Residential Intramural Challenge Cup (HICcup). Flag football, softball, basketball, volleyball, dodgeball, kickball, floor hockey and soccer are some of the most popular sports leagues. In each, individuals and teams are categorized to provide equal competition whenever possible.

Club Sports
Teams are designed for the amateur athlete who enjoys fun, excitement and intercollegiate competition while improving skills in sports not administered by the Athletic Department. Over 2,000 undergraduate and graduate students participate in student-run USC club sports. Club sport teams provide leadership opportunities for students and are designed to encourage active participation from all members.

USC hosts over 58 club sports, including archery, chess, cricket, dance, dragon boat, equestrian, fencing, ice hockey, golf, lacrosse, marathon, men’s rowing (crew), polo (horse), rugby, triathlon, ski and snowboard, soccer, surfing, tennis, triathlon, ultimate Frisbee, volleyball, women’s softball and wrestling.

Fitness
Trojan Fitness features USC Workout (group exercise classes), massage therapy, personal trainers and private pilates. USC Workout (group exercise) are classes offered in a non-academic environment with experienced instructors. These popular classes include: abs/core, hip-hop aerobics, zumba, muscle conditioning, cardioboxing, SCycling (USC’s style of cardio cycling), yoga, mat pilates, turbo kickboxing (TKB), African dance, Latin cardio jam, water jogging and yoga bootie ballet.

Additional training and fitness opportunities involve personal trainers, massage therapy and individual pilates sessions with apparatus.

Martial Arts
Recreational Sports presents a variety of martial arts classes designed to introduce the USC community to a culturally diverse form of exercise, skill development and fitness. Forms offered may include Aikido, Karate, Kung Fu, Shinkendo, Taekwondo, Wu Shu, Nation and Dux Ninjitsu. Capoeira, one of the newest styles, is an Afro-Brazilian blend of martial arts, dance and culture.

BeFit. BeWell. Wellness Programs
Recreational Sports collaborates with a diverse group of individuals from various departments to develop workshops and seminars on topics such as fitness outreach programs, wellness, fiscal fitness, nutrition, safety, stress management and environmental sustainability (recycling) to provide the USC community opportunities to achieve a healthy lifestyle.

Workshops include: CPR, First Aid, Lifeguard Certification, Earthquake Preparedness, Smoking Cessation, Health and Nutrition, Take a Hike: Griffith Park Hike, Water Jogging, Stress Management Fair, Identity Theft (Money Management), Urban SCycling, Going Green 101, introductory sports classes, Travel Health, Camping 101 and Trojan Trekkers (walking program).

A GLIMPSE OF TROJAN HISTORY

The 1984 Olympics
“For a period of two weeks during the summer of 1984, world attention will be focused on the Summer Olympic Games in Los Angeles. USC will draw part of this attention as the site of an Olympic Village and of the McDonald’s Swim Stadium where swimming and diving events will be held. Construction on the campus has been ongoing for several years and is thus an inconvenience to which students have become accustomed.” – SCampus 1983-84
Sports

Club Sports Facts
- Over 58 teams.
- Run by students.
- Over 3,000 active members.
- USC Men’s Soccer, Men’s and Women’s Ultimate Frisbee and Women’s Lacrosse club teams participated in national championships in 2010 and 2011.
- USC Cricket competed in the National Cricket Championships in Florida.
- USC Cheer and Stunt won the Western National Championships.
- USC Chess Club won the USC Amateur West Regional Tournament.
- USC Tennis Club came in 3rd in the West Regionals, earning a bid to the National Championships.
- USC Marathon Club had over 80 runners complete the 2010 Los Angeles Marathon.
- Men’s ice hockey team played in Japan, China and Italy.

Lyon Center Pro Shop
Equipment Checkout and Locker Rental
A variety of items (such as racquets and yoga mats) are available for rental in the Lyon Center Pro Shop. Some sports equipment and fitness apparel are also available for purchase. Locker rentals and towel service (registration online at www.usc.edu/recsports) are available for semester and year rental. Day-use lockers are also available (bring your own lock). For additional information, call (213) 740-5127.

Outdoor Adventure Rental Service
The Outdoor Adventure Rental (OAR) program was developed to give USC students an opportunity to explore the outer limits of Southern California. Tents, sleeping bags, lanterns and more equipment for hiking, backpacking and camping is available to rent through the OAR program. Reservations are made on a first-come, first-served basis by OAR certified staff members.

Facility Scheduling
On the University Park campus, a number of facilities may be reserved for department or student organization competitions and picnics, including: Cromwell Field, Lyon University Center, indoor and outdoor swimming pools, PHED north and south gymnasias, tennis, racquetball and squash courts. For recreation facility reservations, complete the online form at www.usc.edu/recsports. For racquetball and squash court reservations, contact Recreational Sports at (213) 740-5127.

Employment Opportunities
Recreational Sports provides students with a variety of opportunities to work on campus and develop leadership skills in sports-related fields. College Work Study Program applicants are preferred. Jobs include student directors, facility managers, officials, marketing and promotions, aerobic (group exercise) instructors, lifeguards, scheduling, fitness instructors, guest services, office assistants, weight room attendants, youth sports instructors and more. Applications are available online at www.usc.edu/recsports or at the Lyon Center.

Special Programs
Recreational Sports offers a variety of special programs, including:
- National Youth Sports Program – Trojan KidSCamp (NYSP-TKC)
- Recreational Club Council (RCC)
- Aerobic instructor clinics
- Master’s Swimming Program
- Sports officials/referees clinics
- CPR and lifeguard certification
- Physical Education building indoor pool (Rec Swim)
- Wellness programs
- Spirit squads (Song Leaders, Spirit Leaders, Junior Song Girl Camp and Traveler)
- Recreational services (golf tournaments, tennis competitions, etc.)

FACILITIES
General William Lyon University Center
The 66,000-square-foot Lyon University Center, located on the University Park campus, provides the recreational space needed to accommodate extracurricular sports and fitness activities. This facility significantly affects the quality of campus life for the entire university community.

The Lyon University Center houses the Recreational Sports Office as well as racquetball and squash courts, a climbing wall, locker rooms, sauna and whirlpool, weight room equipped with a full line of weight-lifting equipment including free weights, a cardiovascular exercise room, group exercise fitness studio, Robinson Fitness Room (SCycling room), two multipurpose rooms, a club meeting room and gymnasium for intramural sports, open “drop in” recreation and special events. The Lyon Center also houses a newly converted cardiovascular and weight exercise area on the second floor, expanding the available area to nearly double the size of the original exercise room.

Locker and changing room facilities serve the center and the adjacent McDonalds Swim Stadium, which features a 25-yard by 25-yard diving pool and a 50-meter by 25-yard competition pool.

Health Sciences Campus Fitness Center
The new HSC Fitness Center is a highlight of the Health Sciences campus. Located in the 2001 Soto Street Building, the 10,000-square-foot HSC Fitness Center houses a variety of cardiovascular and fitness equipment, weights, two group exercise rooms, restrooms, showers and day-use-only lockers. Some equipment is available for check out. Adjacent to the fitness center, a lighted basketball court and multipurpose area (with amphitheatre) is available for drop-in, intramural programs and reservations. The HSC Fitness Center, opened in fall 2011, is one of the newest enhancements of campus life.

Student Governance
The Undergraduate Student Government (USG) and the Graduate and Professional Student Senate (GPSS) are recognized by the university administration as the official voices of the student body. These groups are representative student-elected bodies offering campus programs, a forum to deal with campus issues and an opportunity for students to become involved in the university community.

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Administrative Assistant: Jakita Morgan
(213) 740-5620
Ronald Tutor Campus Center 224
usg.usc.edu

The Undergraduate Student Government serves the undergraduate students at USC through advocacy, programming and funding. Recent projects include providing free shuttles to popular LA attractions, extending Thanksgiving break and enhancing wireless Internet capabilities on and around campus.

Legislative Branch
The legislative branch consists of 12 elected senators who represent three constituencies: Greek, commuter and residential. The legislative body approves programming fee allocations and advocates on behalf of the student body.

Executive Branch
The executive branch of the Undergraduate Student Government is responsible for advocacy-related work and programming, the election and recruitment of individuals for the senate, public relations and the allocation of funds to student organizations.

Judicial Council
Made up of seven associate justices and one chief justice, this council serves as the judicial body of the Undergraduate Student Government. The council has the jurisdiction to rule on all USG constitutional and bylaw petitions.

(213) 740-5656
Ronald Tutor Campus Center 224
uscprogramboard.com

Program Board is a student-run event programming organization on campus. It comprises five campus-wide committees and eight assemblies that serve as umbrella organizations to numerous member organizations. Each committee and assembly strives to program events that not only educate and entertain students, but also promote diversity and cultural awareness.

Campus-wide Events Committees
Concerts, performing arts, special events, speakers and Trojan Pride

Assemblies
Academic Culture Assembly; Asian Pacific American Student Assembly; Black Student Assembly; International Students’ Assembly; Latina/o Student Assembly; Political Student Assembly; Queer and Ally Student Assembly; and the Women’s Student Assembly

UNIVERSITY RESIDENTIAL STUDENT COMMUNITY (URSC)

(213) 740-6467
Student Union 200
www.ursctrojans.org

Elected representatives of residential student government serve as a voice for residential students in the university’s decision-making process. They also provide campus-wide programming to enhance the residential living environment. URSC is particularly adept at addressing concerns that affect students who live in university housing. URSC is also active on regional and national levels, and is considered one of the nation’s top residential student governments. URSC is advised by Viktor Kerney, assistant director for student development and leadership in the Office for Residential Education.

Building Governments
A representative student government exists in all the residential communities. These are affiliated with URSC and advised by Residential Education staff.

GREEK COUNCIL
Office of Fraternity and Sorority Leadership Development

(213) 740-2080
Student Union 200

USC has six student-run greek councils, each serving as a coordinating and oversight body for their respective constituencies. The councils are made up of representatives from each of the constituent chapters and new officers are elected yearly.

The six councils include the Asian Greek Council, Interfraternity Council, Multicultural Greek Council, National Pan-Hellenic Council, Professional Fraternity Council and the Panhellenic Council.

Each of these councils works to ensure the strength and growth of the chapters they represent. Additionally, the councils plan and implement programs and events designed to enhance the experience of all students, especially those who participate in fraternity and sorority life.
For more information, contact the Office for Fraternity and Sorority Leadership Development at www.usc.edu/student-affairs/greeklife or (213) 740-2080.

RECREATION CLUB COUNCIL

USC Recreational Sports
(213) 740-5127
(213) 740-9739 (FAX)
Lyon University Center
www.usc.edu/recsports

The Recreation Club Council (RCC) is a collective organization of more than 58 club teams recognized by Recreational Sports and the Office of Campus Activities. The RCC is dedicated to serving the athletic needs of students, faculty and staff by offering sporting opportunities typically not available through existing academic, recreational, intramural and/or varsity programming.

The mission of the RCC is to allow the university community an opportunity to pursue sporting passions they brought to USC and to discover new ones. The primary focus is to provide stability, guidance, leadership and continuity to all new and returning clubs. In doing so, the RCC builds shared experiences and relationships with other members who have a similar excitement for sport.

With the RCC as the governing body of all club sport teams and recreational clubs, each club designates a club leader to represent the club at monthly RCC meetings. Some of the club sports include: badminton, climbing, cricket, ballroom dance, equestrian, fencing, golf, ice hockey, lacrosse, rugby, soccer, volleyball, table tennis, polo, racquetball, rowing, ski and snowboard, women’s fast pitch softball, surfing and tennis.

Club sports maintain membership during the fall and spring semesters only. Membership fees and application periods vary from club to club. Most club teams compete in the spring semester with the fall semester dedicated to strength training and conditioning. Many clubs maintain a portion of the membership for basic instruction and recreation (not competition) throughout the year. Fencing, chess, dance, golf, archery, badminton, tennis and racquetball are just a few of the clubs that welcome new members throughout the season.

A list of sport club teams is available online at www.usc.edu/recsports. For additional information, contact the Club Sport Office (recsports@usc.edu) or call (213) 740-5127.

UNIVERSITY COMMITTEES

These committees are established to address issues that affect the entire university. The student governments recommend student representatives to these committees, which include academic policies and procedures, budget advisory, international education, student affairs, undergraduate curriculum, university convocations, graduate and professional studies and several others.

Besides providing channels to express and advocate student concerns, the student governance bodies provide an excellent opportunity for students to develop leadership skills and gain valuable experience.

Student Organizations

Campus Activities
(213) 740-5003
Ronald Tutor Campus Center 330
Email: stuacts@usc.edu
www.usc.edu/stuorgs

USC has more than 750 recognized student organizations. These organizations provide opportunities for students and other members of the university community to explore their academic, professional, political, social, recreational, artistic, cultural, spiritual and community service interests. In addition, student organizations provide a laboratory for the development of interpersonal, organizational and leadership skills in the members and officers. Such organizations exist to promote the educational mission of the university.

Campus Activities holds an Involvement Fair on Trousdale Parkway the first Wednesday of the fall and spring semesters. This fair allows students to gather information regarding many of the student organizations on campus, as well as services for students.

The following is a list of recognized student organizations for the 2010-2011 academic year. These organizations may or may not be recognized for the 2011-2012 academic year.

For more information on these organizations, please visit the student organization Website at www.usc.edu/stuorgs or contact the Office of Campus Activities. This site has the most current information about student organizations, including up-to-date contact information. Information on how to start an organization and other resources are also available.

Question: I'm planning to start a student organization. What steps do I need to take to get it officially recognized?

Answer: In order for your organization to be recognized, you must fill out an application, submit a constitution and roster, have your advisor complete an advisor form, and attend a mandatory meeting. Religious organizations must schedule an interview and fill out an additional form from the Office of Religious Life. These forms, as well as more information on this process, are available online at www.usc.edu/stuorgs. The requirements are also outlined in Recognition of Student Organizations on page 161.

A Glimpse of Trojan History

Night Life

“The Nightclub Trojan is a student-run nightclub featuring the best of rock and roll and comedy. Located in the Commons Restaurant, the Nightclub is open every Wednesday. Past performers have included Josie Cotton and the Plimsouls.

“The Nightclub Trojan provides students with a place to go on campus to have a good time during their busy week. The Nightclub has a full bar serving wine, beer, and mixed drinks to people age 21 and older. Pizza, French fries, and assorted snacks are also offered.”

Question: My friends and I want to start a student organization. Is it possible to apply for funding through the university?

Answer: All recognized student organizations may apply for funding. Money is set aside specifically for student organizations and their programming needs. Campus Activities has information describing all of the various funding sources on campus for student organizations. For more information, contact the Undergraduate Student Government office at Tutor Campus Center 224 or the Peer Leadership Consultants in Tutor Campus Center 330. Information is also available online at www.usc.edu/stuorgs.

Athena

“The Athena Literary Society is composed of young ladies of both college and academy. The object of the society is to give general literary and forensic training. Speeches, debates and such papers as [those that] keep the college young woman in touch with the busy outside world, comprise the largest part of its work.”

Visions and Voices: The USC Arts and Humanities Initiative
(213) 740-0483
Stoner Hall 203
www.usc.edu/visionsandvoices

Visions and Voices is an exciting initiative that offers a diverse array of events in the arts and humanities. Throughout the year, you will have the opportunity to attend theatrical productions, music and dance performances, conferences, lectures, film screenings and art exhibitions. In addition to events held on the University Park and Health Sciences campuses, events throughout the city will offer a variety of opportunities to experience Los Angeles’s dynamic cultural landscape.

But this is no ordinary event series. At every Visions and Voices program, students will be invited to dialogue and interact with artists, writers, professors and special guests. This interaction will provide a unique experience of the arts and humanities and will encourage students to actively explore USC’s core values, including freedom of expression, team spirit, appreciation of diversity, commitment to service, informed risk-taking, ethical conduct and the search for truth.

Volunteer and Service-Learning Opportunities

There are more than 260 community service programs administered by USC and affiliated institutions which serve more than 600,000 persons and provide volunteer opportunities for more than 22,000 USC students, faculty, staff, alumni and friends each year. Volunteers contribute more than 900,000 volunteer hours annually. Information about these community service programs and data about the USC neighborhoods is available online at communities.usc.edu.

The following programs are a sampling of the service programs which you can join. There are many other student organizations that offer community service opportunities. See the complete list of student organizations on page 78 for other possibilities. For additional information, refer to the USC Volunteer Center section on page 98.

A COMMUNITY PLACE

University Religious Center 103
Email: acommunityplace@gmail.com
ami@usc.com

A Community Place (ACP) is a student-run center that serves the homeless, working poor, seniors and children by providing healthy bag lunches, bus tokens for appointments and referrals to jobs, health centers, shelters and food or clothing distributors. ACP is open three times a week and is located in St. Mark’s Lutheran Church (3651 S. Vermont Ave.), across from USC Gate 5.
ALPHA PHI OMEGA
Email: apo@usc.edu
 apo.usc.com
Since its introduction to USC in 1934, Alpha Phi Omega (APO) has provided hundreds of USC students with an avenue for organizing service programs, immediate opportunities to lead within the organization, and events and activities to bring its members together. APO recently volunteered at the AIDS Walk, Habitat for Humanity, community enrichment, Senior Social and the Union Rescue Mission, among other projects. APO is a coed service fraternity open to all current students – greek or non-greek, undergraduate or graduate.

ASIAN AMERICAN TUTORIAL PROJECT
Student Union 410
Email: aatp@usc.edu
 www-scf.usc.edu/~aatp
The Asian American Tutorial Project is a volunteer tutorial and mentorship program that benefits children in lower socioeconomic environments. The organization is jointly run by USC, UCLA and Occidental College, and currently offers tutoring to first through sixth graders at Castelar Elementary School, located in the Chinatown area.

BEST BUDDIES
Email: bestbuds@usc.edu
 www.bestbuddies.org
Best Buddies is a non-profit international organization that strives to enhance the lives of people who have intellectual disabilities through one-to-one friendships and integrated employment. The USC chapter of Best Buddies is paired with students from Lanterman High School, and students make friendships that last a lifetime.

USC CIRCLE K
Email: circlek@usc.edu
 www-scf.usc.edu/~circlek
USC Circle K is a community service organization that aims to help various parts of the community by feeding the homeless, reading to kids and participating in beach clean-ups. As a branch of Kiwanis International, USC Circle K volunteers can participate at any of its service events that take place throughout Los Angeles county on a weekly basis.

USC HABITAT FOR HUMANITY, CAMPUS CHAPTER
Email: habitat@usc.edu
 www.habitat.org
USC Habitat for Humanity is an organized campus chapter of the international organization, which works to provide individual members and other student organizations with the opportunity to participate in this unique service opportunity. Although students may have little or no experience with construction, they are welcomed and trained to be active participants in various aspects of the home-building process.

HELENES
Email: helenes@usc.edu
 www.uschelenes.org
USC Helenes is an all-female service organization serving shelters and programs around Los Angeles. Members also serve as hostesses at USC events.

JOINT EDUCATIONAL PROJECT
Tammara Anderson
(213) 740-1837
JEP House
 www.usc.edu/jep
The Joint Educational Project (JEP) offers students a unique opportunity to combine academic course work with the experience found in the ethnically and culturally diverse community surrounding the university. Each year some 1,600 students from approximately 70 courses receive academic credit for their participation in JEP. An additional 400 students serve as non-credit volunteers and share their time and special talents in the project. As a JEP student, you can choose one of several assignments:

• In local schools, you can tutor and befriend children through the mentors program; aid teachers in the classroom as teacher assistants; help other school administrators; and lead mini-course lessons on subjects from earthquakes to health and nutrition.
• In health clinics, hospitals and the coroner’s office, you can work as a physician’s assistant, patient comforter or translator through the Trojan Health Volunteers Program.
• In other community sites, such as a shelter for battered women and children or a neighborhood tutorial center, students can offer help that enhances current educational arts and sports programs.

JEP assignments last from eight to 10 weeks during the semester and provide excellent career preparation, community service and personal growth opportunities for interested students. JEP houses an America Reads/America Counts program, coined USC Readers PLUS, which hires and places work-study students in five of the USC Family Schools. Readers and math mentors assist neighborhood children with reading and math between eight and 15 hours a week during the academic year and up to 40 hours a week during the summer months. Visit the JEP House at 801 W. 34th St., across from Taper Hall.

NATIONAL YOUTH SPORTS PROGRAM

Justine Gilman
(213) 740-5127
Lyon University Center
Email: recsports@usc.edu
www.usc.edu/recsports

This program is sponsored by Recreational Sports. Now in its 44th year, the National Youth Sports Program (NYSP) continues to strive to meet the needs of USC community youth. The program provides summer experiences in sports instruction, fitness, nutrition, citizenship and sportsmanship for economically disadvantaged children ages 9 to 15 years.

Paid staff positions are available and the application process begins in early April. Applications and information for staff and participants are available (in both English and Spanish) at the Lyon Center or online at www.usc.edu/recsports.

PEER HEALTH EDUCATORS

University Park Health Center
Health Promotion and Prevention Services
(213) 740-HPPS (4777)
www.usc.edu/hpps

In late September to early October, Health Promotion and Prevention Services (HPPS) selects 15 to 25 students to volunteer as Peer Health Educators (PHEs). PHEs are trained in brief motivational interviewing and as peer opinion leaders. The PHEs staff the Resource Rooms in Student Health Center 206 and Tutor Campus Center 427, provide Anonymous OraQuick Rapid HIV Testing, and build wellness in their peer student communities. Applications are due on the last day of October. Those selected complete 32 hours of training and commit to volunteering two hours a week for one year.

If you are interested in becoming a PHE, contact HPPS at (213) 740-4777 for more information or to request an application.

SPIRITS IN ACTION

Email: spiritsinactionorg@gmail.com
www-scосновusc.edu/~spirits

Spirits in Action brings more than 300 athletes with physical and mental disabilities to USC every spring to participate in a day of athletics and fun. The group visits a nearby school each semester to play games with disabled students.

TROY CAMP

Email: TroyCamp@usc.edu
www-scосновusc.edu/~troycamp

Troy Camp is a non-profit volunteer student organization responsible for developing an activities program for school children from the immediate community. It features a week at a wilderness camp at no cost to the children and is the official student philanthropy at USC.

USC VOLUNTEER CENTER

Director: Judi Biggs Garbuio
(213) 740-7012
Tutor Campus Center 425
Email: volctr@usc.edu
www.usc.edu/volunteer

The USC Volunteer Center (UVC) supports community service efforts throughout the USC community. Each year, the UVC organizes monthly campus-wide community service days, as well as identifies volunteer opportunities for students, faculty and staff. The UVC also houses an extensive online database of more than 200 service agencies that provide volunteer opportunities to the USC family. Programs include Alternative Spring and Winter Breaks, CAST (Community Action Short-term Team) and monthly Friends and Neighbors Service Days. For more information about volunteer opportunities, visit the UVC Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Service Organizations

There are numerous student service groups that provide assistance to the surrounding community as well as on campus. For information on these groups, refer to the description in this section or visit the UVC or Office of Campus Activities (Tutor Campus Center 330).

Funding for Community Service

If you are a member of a student group that would like to conduct a hands-on community service project, your group may apply for funding through the Undergraduate Student Government Philanthropy Fund. For more information, visit the Office of Campus Activities Website at www.usc.edu/ca.

WOMEN AND YOUTH SUPPORTING EACH OTHER (WYSE)

Executive Director: Ellen Streit
Email: wyse@usc.edu

WYSE is a mentorship program that provides middle school girls at three local middle schools with the resources and support necessary to make informed decisions about their relationships, sexuality and futures, and to create community change. WYSE mentors facilitate group sessions as well as individually mentor middle school females at one of two local middle schools. WYSE is designed to educate young women and empower them to make healthy decisions on their own. In addition, the organization works to create a cohesive team of mentors that supports one another as they support their mentees.

YOUTHS EXPLORING PASSION (Y.E.P!)

Email: uscyep@usc.edu

The mission of Y.E.P! is to impact the lives of youths by helping them seek and find a passion specific to themselves and connect them to resources, facilities and mentors in order to help develop and nurture that passion.

By joining Y.E.P!, one becomes a coach who helps a pregnant teenager explore possible passions in her life. All the mentees are students at Thomas Riley High School, where all students are pregnant (average age is 16).
